

OVERVIEW
 2009 RUSTIC REUNION
 9-13 SEPTEMBER 2009
 HYATT DULLES HOTEL
 HERNDON, VA

1. Our reunion this year is developing into the best one we have ever had.
 - a. The Hyatt Dulles Hotel is an extraordinarily nice facility with beautiful rooms and room rates which are some of the lowest we have experienced.
 - b. We have several tours and events scheduled which will create a diverse and memorable experience for Rustics and their wives/guests.
 - c. Highlights of scheduled events include:
 - i. Friday Tour of DC
 - 1) White House tour
 - 2) Memorial Service at the Vietnam Memorial conducted by Chaplain (Major General) Cecil R. Richardson, Chief of Air Force Chaplains
 - 3) Air Force Memorial tour
 - 4) Tour Jefferson Memorial and drive by other sites and memorials on the Mall
 - 5) Afternoon self-guided tour of Smithsonian Museums
 - ii. Saturday Tour Options
 - 1) All-day tour of Gettysburg PA with two-hour guided tour of the battlegrounds
 - 2) Combination tour of Mount Vernon and special Arlington National Cemetery tour via the Tourmobile
 - 3) Self-directed tours of the many sites in the DC capitol region
 - iii. A really great Hootch Facility and patio.
 - iv. Briefing by the Commander, 74th Tactical Fighter Squadron, on their unit's recent deployment to Iraq.
 - v. Possible patriotic music by the Air Force Band of Washington.
 - vi. Recognition of Colonel Oum's contributions to the Rustic mission (Hopefully, Mrs. Oum and her family will join us).
 - vii. Recognition of three men who helped Don Mercer secure many Rustic awards and decorations.
 - viii. Easy access from Dulles International Airport to Hyatt Dulles Hotel (free shuttles provided)
2. Reunion coordinators will strive to get as many O-2 and OV-10 Rustics as possible to attend the reunion as well as special guests.
3. Reunion coordinators will encourage many members of the 74th TFS to join us, too.
4. Reunion Cost Summary:
